Wimbledon and Putney Commons Conservators – Charity Commission

The Wimbledon and Putney Commons Conservators and their Chief Executive met with representatives from the Charity Commission on 9th October to discuss serious issues arising from the sale of access rights at Putney Hospital in February 2012.

The Trustees have now received recommendations from the Charity Commission on how they should proceed. Shirley Gillbe, Interim Chairman, commented “The Trustees will meet on 11th November to discuss the recommendations made by the Charity Commission, and how to implement them”.
