STATUTORY INQUIRY

The Charity Commission wrote to the Conservators on the 26th April 2018 advising that it had received complaints relating to the conduct of the Charity's recent Conservator elections. The Commission stated in the letter that it had not reached a view on the validity of the complaints and allegations received and wished to give the Conservators an opportunity to comment on them before it reached a view. The Conservators have provided a detailed response to the Charity Commission which has confirmed that it is investigating the matter within the existing Statutory Inquiry.
